A photograph of a light-colored, possibly beige or cream, marble floor with a subtle pattern. In the upper right corner, there is a red glass candle holder containing a lit candle with a golden flame. Next to it is a bundle of incense sticks, some of which are lit and emitting a light smoke. Another bundle of red sticks, possibly incense or sticks of wood, is tied with a white and red string. The floor is composed of large, rectangular tiles with dark grey grout lines.
